

Innovative design, research and high-tech materials are the essential distinguishing marks of the Rado brand. Hardmetal, sapphire Crystal and high-tech ceramic inspire the design concepts and give Rado watches their unique character. Numerous Rado watches have been rewarded with international design prizes, and the brand remains committed to its quest for outstanding new ideas.

STORE ARCHITECT / PROJEKT MANAGER

Job-description

- Creative layout and implementation of stores and Shop-in-shops
- Maintenance & refurbishment of existing furniture
- Creation and update of clear furniture guidelines for international use.
- Research of internal and external resources for the implementation of new points of sales
- Management of the implementation process (planning, support and project management)
- Participation to various projects (ie. Baselworld)
- Collaborate with and support the Merchandising department on specifics projects
- Budget and quality control
- Evaluation of stores and suppliers

Your profile

- Attention to details, thorough and well-organized
- Good communication skills, open minded
- Stress resistant and able to manage multiple projects simultaneously
- Respect of confidentiality
- Independent & self-motivated

Professional requirements

- Degree in architecture or industrial design
- A few years professional experience in the same domain, preferably in an International environment
- Technical drawings & store layouts in Autocad
- 3D renderings in StudioMax or similar
- Microsoft Office Suite
- Adobe Creative Suite (Photoshop)
- Native German speaker with strong English language skills, French knowledge is a plus

Susanne Vauthier, Human Resources, Rado Watch Co. Ltd., Bielstrasse 45, 2543 Lengnau is looking forward to receiving your full job application. You can reach her by e-mail: susanne.vauthier@rado.com.

Rado Watch Co. Ltd.
2543 Lengnau
Switzerland
Phone +41 32 655 61 11